

STANDARDS FOR SEEKING AND HOLDING OFFICE at AACG

Standards

1. Any member of AACG in good standing shall be eligible for any election or administrative appointment upon the requirements of that office.
2. No members of AACG shall be a candidate for more than one (1) office in any one (1) election.
3. All elected, or appointed members of the AACG Steering Council shall:
 - a. At time of election, or appointment, and throughout term of office, be in good standing. Good standing is defined as: fully paid dues, current with service hours, no plot violations, or compliance sanctions;
 - b. If an AACG Steering Council member “falls” out of good standing, the member must recommit and implement a plan to return back to good standing with AACG by the next quarter;
 - c. Be free of any compliance probations;
 - d. Have no disciplinary sanctions greater than a warning imposed for violation(s) of the AACG bylaws or gardeners agreement at the time of election or appointment;
 - e. Not occupy more than one (1) AACG Steering Council position;
 - f. Attend all regular AACG Steering Council meetings (refer to Section 8, #9 of Bylaws regarding absences);and
 - g. Endeavor to maintain these standards throughout the elected or appointed officer’s term.
4. Failure to meet or maintain these standards will disqualify those running for office or subject elected or appointed officers to removal from office.